Doughnuts

"It was a terrific fire—two engines and two police cars and all the volunteer firemen and five dozen doughnuts sent up from the Tasti-Lunch Diner. The doughnuts were supposed to be for the firemen, but by the time they got the fire out the doughnuts were all gone. The Herdmans got them..."
 (page 2)

1. How many doughnuts would each of the six Herdman children get, if they were divided equally?
2. Do some doughnut price comparisons. Add your information to the chart that has been started. Use the information that you have to calculate the missing figures. Round up to the nearest cent.

Swaddling Clothes

" 'Swaddling clothes.' Mother sighed. 'Long ago, people used to wrap their babies very tightly in big pieces of material, so they couldn't move around. It made the babies feel cozy and comfortable.' I thought it probably just made the babies mad." (p. 44)

In addition to restricting the movement of the baby, what other reasons might there be for wrapping a baby in swaddling clothes?

Current Infant Clothing: Make a list of clothes that a baby would wear. (If necessary, look in catalogs, newspapers and magazines for ideas.)

What was your favorite outfit or item of clothing when you were very young? Please describe it.
